33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction

Today is the 33rd Sunday in the Church's calendar, but for us it holds a far more poignant meaning - Remembrance Sunday. Today we remember all who have died in conflicts, both combatants and civilians alike. We specifically remember and pray for all those from our own nation and commonwealth who gave their lives to preserve our freedoms and way of life.

If their sacrifice is not to be in vain, we owe it to them to learn from the past. We must never ignore the threat from populist, extremist and divisive voices in our own lands and abroad. People initially laughed at Hitler's Brown Shirts until it was too late. Let us honour the dead by doing all we can to work for peace.

God bless,

Fr Morrough

St William's 1st Holy Communion

Today we welcome our children into Full Communion with the Church. Let us pray for the children and their families, that today is a blessed and joyful occasion.

Children's liturgy

St. William's 'Little Church' Each Sunday - If you have primary school age children they are most welcome to attend during 9.30 a.m. Mass.

St. Ethelbert's Ichthus Club during 11.30 am Mass is planned but not yet ready to start. New adult volunteers are very welcome.

Security: St William's Church and Presbytery has had a new alarm system installed this week. This is a good time to update the list of Key holders. If you have a key to the Church please see Fr Morrough to get the code to the alarm. Anyone who has a key and no longer needs it please return it as soon as possible and remember that keys and alarm code should never be passed to anyone else in the Parish without permission. Thank you.

November Holy Souls: There are envelopes at the back of both churches to remember your loved ones who you wish to be prayed for during November, please put names in the envelopes along with your offering. These will be offered up each Sunday and Father will place the names on the altars of the respective churches so we can keep them in our prayers and thoughts.

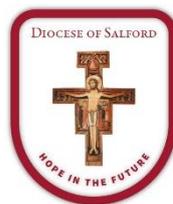

Piety: Christmas cards (including Christmas Mass cards), gifts, candles, calendars, books, ornaments and nativity sets are available in both churches (different items in each church). Please feel free to look in the cupboards and browse under no obligation. Consider buying a religious item for a Christmas present or stocking filler as the piety includes bibles, jigsaws, jewellery, crib sets, aprons, bags for life, games, Christmas tree decorations, fridge magnets, kitchen items. A very small profit is made on all items and this contributes to parish funds. Thank you for your support.

A Light in this World: November is the month of remembrance when we celebrate the lives of the faithful departed. More than ever, we may find ourselves thinking about a loved one. We then see Advent dawning, when we prepare for the Lord's coming in glory. This year, why not make a dedication to someone you love, someone you miss or someone who has no-one else to pray for them. Together, we can keep their light shining, whilst making a difference to the lives of those who need it most. Please visit <https://caritassalford.dedicationpage.org/> Please note that all dedications made by Monday 22nd November will then be remembered by name during the Caritas Mass of Remembrance on Friday 26th November at 7.00 pm celebrated by Fr Ged Murphy, Episcopal Vicar for Caritas, at St Anne's RC Church, Stretford.

Bags to Church: As we clear our summer clothes away for the Winter Woollies here's an opportunity to get rid of your unwanted clothes etc whilst helping Church Funds.

Please do not include DUVETS or CUSHIONS. Bags may be left at either church. The bags will be collected on November 15th.

Many thanks, Agnes x

IN THE FUTURE

Fr Eamonn Mulcahy - Synods and the Church under Pope Francis

Wednesday 24 November 2021, 7.30pm, Cathedral Centre and Zoom

Pope Francis is inviting the Catholic Church to listen deeply to one another and to discern what God is saying to the Church. Fr Eamonn will help us explore Pope Francis' vision for a Synodal Church. The session will take place on Wednesday 24 November at the Cathedral Centre and via Zoom. The talk will begin at 7.30pm, with refreshments from 7pm. Suggested donations of £5 are welcome. To register for the event, visit www.dioceseofsalford.org.uk/synods-and-the-church-under-pope-francis/

Christmas Hampers: Raffle tickets will be on sale at the back of both our churches after all Masses this Sunday.

St. Ethelbert's 200 Club 7/11/21 Robert Cafferky £50, Congratulations to our winner!

Christ the Redeemer Parish Collections: £676.20 from both churches. The October statement showed £913.00 received in Gift Aided and other donations. Thank you very much for your generosity.
